COMPANY FOOTPRINTS

The company was founded by Ravi Kumar Chauhan. I began my dream in Travel & Tourism industry in 2011. The journey was quite challenging and hard to follow, since this industry has given me so much inspiration; when I used to spend the time with my father in our little shop at Agra - Fatehpur Sikri Road. I saw tourists visiting Agra and Fatehpur Sikri. Tourist guide & traveler used to come at my shop for beverages like Tea / Coffee, Lassi & snacks. They discussed their experience about the destinations and tourists.

Now Travel with RV has grown to a full service travel planning company with a focus on remarkable itineraries and tailored experiences. We pride ourselves on helping our travel partners from around the world discover the joy of travel through customized journeys for India & sub-continent. We provide our travel partners with high touch customer service and take the time to get to know them and what type of travel experience will make their trip be spectacular.

We are a small company with each of focusing on what we are passionate about including; customized itineraries to India, Nepal, Bhutan, Sri Lanka & Travel with RV special curated program Bharat Dekho (which is especially for domestic traveler) which make a perfect traveler choice. We welcome the opportunity to help you plan your next vacation.

Explore India's diverse culture

THE MAGICAL NORTH

The North Region is home to some of India's most spectacular natural beauty. From snow-capped mountain ranges in Kashmir Valley and Himachal Pradesh to lush green forests in Uttarakhand and Uttar Pradesh; Take a journey back in time at one of Delhi's many historical monuments such as Red Fort or Qutub Minar; visit Amritsar's Golden Temple which stands proudly amidst bustling markets selling traditional handicrafts; marvel at Lucknow's famous Mughal architecture - there is sure to be something here that will leave an impression on even the most experienced traveler!

THE MAJESTIC HIMALAYANS

Discover the spirituality and cultural heritage of the Himalayas.

The beauty of the Himalayas lies in its vastness; visitors can explore everything from snow-capped peaks to lush valleys filled with vibrant flora and fauna. The region is also steeped in history - it was here where Buddhism first began thousands of years ago! Visiting monasteries like Tawang Monastery or Hemis Gompa are must-dos on any itinerary as they provide an insight into traditional Buddhist culture.

THE EAST, BORDERING THE BAY OF BENGAL

Culture, Cuisine & British architecture attract tourists this tolerant region.

East India boasts some incredible examples of colonial-era architecture left behind by the British during their rule, including iconic landmarks like Victoria Memorial Hall in Kolkata. This tolerant region welcomes people from all backgrounds making it an ideal destination for anyone who wants an enriching travel experience without feeling overwhelmed by cultural differences or language barriers.

THE WONDERFUL WEST

Mumbai, Bollywood cinema, and stunning landscapes, such as deserts, beaches, forests, slums, fortresses, and palaces.

Explore the Gateway of India & nightlife in Mumbai, the Konkan coastlines of Goa, the white desert of Rann of Kutch, Asiatic lions in Gir Forest National Park, and Rajasthan's palaces, Havelis (mansion) dotted across various cities including Jaipur (Pink City), Jodhpur (Blue City) & Udaipur (City Of Lakes)

THE SEVEN SISTERS OF NORTH-EAST

This region is isolated and less explored but offers acres of lush vegetation and tea plantations. Take a jeep safari in Assam's Kaziranga, explore ancient temples like Kamakhya Temple in Guwahati, visit Meghalaya's living root bridges, take part in traditional festivals such as Hornbill Festival in Nagaland or Bihu Festival in Assam, trek through picturesque mountain ranges, white water rafting down rapids on the Brahmaputra River or even explore remote tribal villages deep within the forest.

THE ENCHANTING SOUTH

This enchanting region is a paradise of beautiful landscapes, Whether relaxing on a beach or exploring ancient temples and monuments - there are countless activities to enjoy in this magical part of India. South India is a region in India that comprises the states of Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Kerala, Tamil Nadu, and Telangana, as well as the union territories of Lakshadweep and Puducherry. The region is known for its rich cultural heritage, diverse cuisine, beautiful landscapes, and vibrant traditions. The region is also known for its beautiful natural scenery, which includes stunning beaches, rolling hills, verdant forests, and picturesque backwaters. Some of the most popular tourist destinations in South India include the beaches of Goa and Kerala, the hill stations of Ooty and Coorg, and the backwaters of Kerala and Tamil Nadu.

Unique Experiences

Holi Special Mathura & Vrindavan

Mathura is a paradise for those who loves to celebrate Holi. The place hosts India's best holi and you are in for a mesmerizing experience here in the beautiful town of Mathura & Vrindavan. Drench yourself in the colors of this festival and you will cherish this moment for lifetime.

Ganesh Chaturthi Tour

Ganesh Chaturthi is a 10 day Hindu festival in honour of the elephant headed god Ganesh, the remover of obstacles and god of wisdom. Families and communities install a clay statue of the god in their home or a communal space and honour the god each day, at times led by a priest, with a variety of rituals. At the end they lead a procession with the statue to a body of water and immerse him.

Elephant Activities Tour

Painting using Organic colors: Learn about the completely natural paint that is used to paint the thick elephant skin. Learn how to create a traditional painting on the elephants face. If you're not great at drawing don't worry, we can paint the outlines on their face if you like and then you fill in the gaps with the colors of your choice. Bathing Elephant: Give your elephant a bath with a hose pipe. Elephants love to be watering.

Traditional Indian Home Cooking Class

Lear the art and tradition of Indian home cooking during this interactive class and market tour in New Delhi. Follow your hostess through the stalls of a spice and produce market in the heart of the city and learn about the ingredients typical in this flavorful cuisine. Interact with locals and get a taste for city life. Once you leave the market, prepare a savory Indian dinner at home with a family and eat together with new found friends.

Luxury Accommodation in India

India is the first choice of traveler in Asia. There are many incredible places to stay in India. Here are some of our favourites, handpicked by our travel designers:

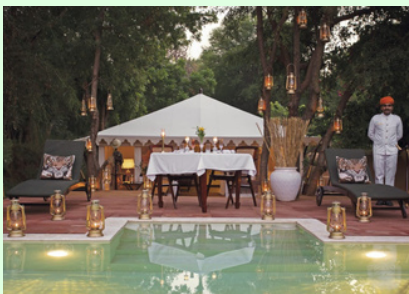

THE OBEROI UDAIVILAS, UDAIPUR

Set out over 30 acres of manicured gardens, replete with endless fountains, several swimming pools, and a varied selection of peerless restaurants, The Oberoi Udaivilas, Udaipur replicates the glory of the Mewari Palaces of old, here in the Kingdom of Mewar, providing the perfect end to any hectic Rajasthan tour. Spend your days relaxing at the resort, taking boat rides on the lake or wondering the ancient streets of this medieval town.

SUJAN, JAWAI

In 2014 Sujan's visionary owners, Jaisal and Anjali Singh, designed this luxury camp in an area renowned for leopards and an impressive and varied landscape of hills, grasslands and winding sand riverbeds. The local Rajbari herdsman with their colourful red turbans are to be seen tending to their flocks and are delighted to share their countryside and way of life with guests.

SUJAN SHER BAGH, RANTHAMBORE

Nestled on the borders of world renowned Ranthambore National Park Suján Sher Bagh transports you to the 1920s, evoking life on safari during the heyday of the British Raj. The Suján family has played an active role in the conservation effort at Ranthambore since 1974, and continues to do so more than 40 years on. Sher Bagh is a pioneering camp of 10 luxurious tents, and 2 exceptional tented suites.

BRIJRAMA PALACE, VARANASI

BrijRama Palace, which stands mighty on the serene banks of Darbhanga Ghat, is one of the oldest man-made structures in the city and is considered to be a top-tier luxury hotel in Varanasi. The palace is often praised for its striking architecture and design which mirrors the rich heritage and culture of the city that it calls home. One can see the influence of the Maratha Dynasty that was in power during the construction of the palace.

SIX SENSES FORT, BARWARA

A beautiful 14th-century fort sensitively converted to become a Six Senses sanctuary of well-being. Originally owned by a Rajasthani Royal Family, it faces the Chauth ka Barwara Mandir temple. The significant conservation effort incorporates two palaces and two temples within the walled fort. The design of Six Senses resort in Rajasthan reinterprets the gracious and regal ambiance of a bygone era dating back 700 years.

ANANDA IN THE HIMALAYAS, RISHIKESH

The world's most renowned holistic wellness retreat, Ananda is a tranquil haven amidst the majestic Himalayan foothills of North India. Residing in the former Palace Estate of the Maharaja of Tehri-Garhwal, it sprawls across the 100-acre grounds, gardens and surrounding forests, boasting world-class wellness facilities and a chance to return to the peaceful solitude of nature.
